He was just another baby, as far as the world was concerned that day. But what was squeezed into that helpless child was the hope of the world. Extraordinary!

Guest Musician: Laura Brandt

Jan 1 New Years' Day 10:00 am

The wise ones were called by the light of a star to come and worship the newborn child. We, too, are called to follow the light, and to let our own light shine for others and for God. As a new year begins, we consider once again what it means to follow Jesus, the Light of the World.
