

Are You Ready? End-of-Life Planning

Date and time: Two consecutive Tuesdays, March 28 and April 4, 7:00-8:30 pm, Karl English Lounge.

Are you ready? Join us for a two-part series hosted by Ministries of Care. The sessions are free of charge and open to all.

Part one: “Are You ready?” This session is devoted to what type of information your family or trusted friends should know when you are no longer here to tell them, everything from personal directives ~ to who you want to have your favourite heirlooms. A take-home booklet will make it possible for you to work on every detail at your leisure.

Part two: “Pre-planning for your own funeral.”

Communicating clearly what we want for our funeral is perhaps the last gift we can offer to friends and family. This session will help you make choices about your own funeral. Do you have favourite hymns or scriptures? What kind of funeral service do you want to have? As with the first session, you will be provided with a take-home form on which you can communicate your preferences. You can take this form home to fill out. If at some point you would like to bring it to the church, we have a safe place where you can keep a copy so that any future minister will know what you would like for your service.

You are welcome to attend both or either of these sessions. Feel free to invite family members or friends.

You are also welcome to meet with Rev. Geoffrey, our Interim Pastoral Care minister, if you would like to discuss any of your choices privately.
